IN MEMORY
OF OUR FRIEND
AND CLASSMATE

RON ZIMMERMAN

We stood watching
as you crossed the street
for the last time.
Trying hard to memorize you.
Knowing it would be important.
The way you walked,,
the way you looked back over your shoulder at us.

Years later
We would hear the singing of the wind
and that day's singing would come back.
That time of going would return to us
every sun-gray day.
April or August it would be the same
for years to come.

Man has not made the kind of bromide
that would let me sleep without your memory or written erotically enough
to erase the excitement of just your hands.

These long years later it is worse for we remember what it was as well as what it might have been.
